All Aboard... LA's Fashion Platform

Besides being full of celeb sightings (yeah we saw you Bianca Lawson-MTV's Teen Wolf), the All Aboard...LA's Fashion Platform event showcased not one, but ten of L.A.'s finest. Each designer electrified the evening with their collections that ranged from urban chic to modern vintage. Moreover, designer Shay Todd was honored with the coveted and annual MAFI Award (Moss Adams Fashion Innovator). The MAFI is presented to a California-based company that has, in the past year, significantly impacted the national marketplace by exemplifying creativity and innovation through unique and compelling designs, manufacturing and/or marketing. Besides Todd, attendees beheld the creations of: Ximena Valero, Rosario, Quynh Paris, Maison Castel, Jet Age, Liberty Sage, Continuous, Nameless USA and Johnny Was.
